Fierce State House Fight in Idaho Is Fast Wrecking Political Ambition.

Libel Suit Pending Against Executive Likely to Reveal Some Sensations.

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 15 .- The Gooding political machine, once so powerful as to ride rough-shod over all opposition in Idaho, seems to be going to pieces. The fight in the State House is becoming fiercer each day. In fact, it is the most vigorous one in the history of State House politics, the old citizens say, and this means something. It is known that scarcely an administration in ten or twelve years, no matter whether it be Republican or Democratie, has escaped a State House political scandal. It seems practically impossible to elect a set of officers in Idaho who can live together harmoniously under the roof of the Boise State Capitol.

Governor Gooding got himself sued for libel a few days ago by the State such form as to makecally Auditor. The amusing part of it is certain that he would ei the Auditor. The amusing part of it is that the Auditor is suing Gooding for defamation of character, the principal foundation for the charge being that the Governor gave out information from his office of such character as to it is alleged, injuriously on the plaintiff. Some who are commenting on this matter say that greater injuries have been done to the Governor because the Auditor called attention to his stupidity in criticising the Auditor for what was manifestly his duty, than what weight might be given to the words of the Governor as published in a local newspaper. a local newspaper.

There is perhaps something in the Governor's interview which is unintelligible to the public in general that carried with it the sting which provoked the Auditor's suit for libel. Something which the Governor and Auditor and the inside politicians interpret as libelous, which is not libelous on the face of it. At any rate, citizens are taking sides, and if the case ever comes to trial, the public is promised three of four well-developed sensations. The Idaho Statesman, a first class newspaper with jack Mormon proclivities, is made co-defendant with the Governor, which gives the executive an There is perhaps something in the Governor, which gives the executive an especial advantage in presenting his side of the case to the people of Idaho, for the reason that the Auditor has no newspaper champion. The Capitol News, which is owned in part by the apostle Senator from Utah, is keeping

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuari's Chamoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat: I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drag stores, and although in some sense drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

BROWN AND BARTNETT FIGHTING FOR LIBERTY

charged with embezzlement and alleged to be responsible for the wrecking of that institution, began their fight for liberty before Superior Judge Dunne this morning, by attacking the validity of the indictments returned against them, and met with their first defeat.

Attorney Hiram W. Johnson, on behalf of Brown, attacked the legality of the indictments, on statutory grounds which questioned the qualifications of the grand jury in this matter, because several members of it were which questioned the qualifications of the grand jury in this matter, be-cause several members of it were depositors in the wrecked bank. He moved that the indictments be set aside on the ground that several grand jurors, as creditors, sat in judgment upon a debtor, and therefore could not act impartially, and were biased and prejudiced against the defendant. Several members of the grand jury

Several members of the grand jury were called by Johnson, and testified to having lost sums varying from $148 to $1000 in the failure, and that while they held the officer responsible for the failure, and naturally felt indiguant over the loss of their money, declared that they were not biased nor prejudiced in voting the indictments.
